- City Colleges gives students access to a quality education and ensures their success by providing them with the support to complete their program and move on to further education or a career. Over more than one hundred years, City Colleges has transformed the lives of more than one million alumni through education. City Colleges of Chicago aims to ensure the success of every student and serve as an economic engine for the City of Chicago.
- Under the leadership of Chancellor Cheryl Hyman, City Colleges of Chicago is in the midst of a Reinvention, a collaborative effort to review and revise CCC programs and practices to ensure students leave CCC college-ready, career-ready and prepared to pursue their life's goals. Reinvention begins with four goals: To increase the number of students earning college credentials of economic value.
To increase the rate of transfer to bachelor's degree programs following CCC graduation. To dramatically improve outcomes for students requiring remediation, and to increase the number and share of adult basic education/GED/ESL students who advance to and succeed in college-level courses.
- New College to Careers initiative: The internationally-recognized College to Careers initiative partners City Colleges with industry-leading companies to prepare Chicagoans for careers in growing fields: healthcare, TDL, business, advanced manufacturing, information technology, and culinary arts and hospitality. Launched in 2011, 150 companies and four year colleges are now helping align curricula and facilities with employer demand to close the skills gap. More than 3,000 students have found a job or paid internship in a C2C field since the program launched.
- Conveniently located across the city, the seven colleges include: Richard J. Daley College, Kennedy-King College, Malcolm X College, Olive-Harvey College, Harry S Truman College, Harold Washington College and Wilbur Wright College. City Colleges also oversees: the award-winning Washburne Culinary Institute, the French Pastry School, the Parrot Cage Restaurant at South Shore Cultural Center, the Sikia Banquet Facility, five Child Development Centers, the Center for Distance Learning, the Workforce Institute, the public broadcast station WYCC TV Channel 20 and radio station WKKC FM 89.3.

Additional Information: Whether your goal is to save tens of thousands towards a college degree or train quickly to enter the workforce, City Colleges has the program for you. Learn more about City Colleges of Chicago online or by calling (773) COLLEGE.

Grand Valley State University

1 Campus Drive
Allendale, MI 49401

Annual Cost: Tuition: $11,078(in-state)

Room & Board: $8,360

$15,744(out-of-state)

Web Site: <http://www.gvsu.edu>

Phone: 800-748-0246

- Grand Valley's liberal education foundation spans all 86 undergraduate and 36 graduate programs for over 25,000 students, integrating disciplines so individuals connect topics and view the world from a broad perspective — better equipping them to make both personal and civic decisions. The middle 50 percent of Grand Valley's entering class for Fall 2014 earned high school GPAs ranging from 3.3 to 3.8 and ACT composite scores of 21 to 26.
- Outstanding faculty members, never graduate students or teaching assistants, teach every class and inspire learning and self-discovery. An average class size of 27 students and student to faculty ratio of 17:1 ensure a more personal classroom experience. Ninety-two percent of regular faculty members have earned their doctorate or other terminal degree.
- Inclusion is a university value, a part of our culture, and a cornerstone of our curriculum. Grand Valley has many offices and centers dedicated to meeting the needs of a diverse university, including a record 401 international students representing 78 different countries during the 2014-2015 academic year. In addition, Grand Valley is ranked 10th among U.S. master's degree-granting institutions for total number of study abroad students, with more than 730 students studying abroad in 2013-2014. Grand Valley ranks eighth of Michigan's 15 public universities in number of students of color, which helps ensure a broad range of personal and educational experiences and prepares students for life in a global economy.
- In the 2013-2014 academic year, 94 percent of our full-time dependent students received financial aid — with an average award of $13,276. More than 2,500 students received the $1,000 Grand Finish grant in 2013. It rewards students for staying on a four-year path to graduation. Of all the 2014 graduates who graduated in four years or less, 33 percent had no debt.
- Grand Valley was rewarded for a third year in a row with appropriations based on performance. It has the third best graduation rate of all public universities in Michigan, and is in the top four for retention rates.

Additional Information: Award for Excellence Scholarship (Non-Michigan Resident)

Award amount: Covers the difference between full-time Michigan resident tuition and non-resident tuition plus an additional $2,000 per year (renewable up to a total of four years).

We offer over 400 degree options in a wide variety of disciplines, including Arts, Social Sciences, Science, Engineering, and Life Sciences. Most degrees are four years, with the option to earn a Master's degree in the fifth year.
- Admission is heavily test-based. Students can apply with the IB diploma (full diploma required), or a combination of SAT, ACT, AP exams, and SAT Subject Tests. Most degree programs require SAT or ACT plus two subject exams; or three subject exams without the general SAT or ACT. AP exams and SAT Subject Tests should be taken in subjects directly related to the degree program that the student is applying into.
- Glasgow is an amazing city in and of itself! It is the largest city in Scotland and offers a wide range of arts, sports, music, recreation, shopping, dining and more. Glasgow is a UNESCO city of music offering over 150 live music gigs per week. This vibrant city has experienced a revival over the past 20 years, making it a top destination for tourists, students, and industry.

Additional Information: The University of Glasgow coordinates a counselor visit each year at the end of February/early March. For more details and to get added to the invitation list, please e-mail student.recruitment@glasgow.ac.uk . We would love to showcase the University of Glasgow to US counselors!
