UPDATE 2022-2023

UNIVERSITY OF
ILLINOIS CHICAGO

IMPORTANT UPDATES

A place to achieve.

Our students are breaking through barriers as we're breaking ground on new facilities, following through on sustainability commitments and expanding opportunities — and that's just the beginning.

UNIVERSITY UPDATES

Continuing Renovations and New Buildings

Work continues on all sides of campus. On the south campus athletic fields, the UIC Flames soccer teams will enjoy a new stadium and renovated field, ready for play this fall as UIC begins competition as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference. On east campus, the College of Engineering's new computer science facility makes progress toward its 2023 open date, and the central quad renovation is on track to wrap up this fall.

UIC Recognized for Sustainability Initiatives

Crain's Chicago Buiness showcased UIC's leadership in sustainablity, including a 50% landfill diversion rate; expanding food scrap collection and food recovery on campus; forming a climate justice partnership with the Urban Growers Collective; the Student Sustainability Fee and the Sustainability Internship Program; and receiving more than $1 million in grants for campus sustainability programs and infrastructure.

New Scholarship Opportunities

UIC's supported our first cohort for the Chancellor's FirstGen Flames Abroad Scholarship, which provides opportunities for first-generation students to study abroad. And the campus recently launched the DuSable Scholars program, which identifies and supports talented Black and Latino students studying STEM-related fields.
